

Everyone knew Julian as Stav - a well-known character, playing rugby but also showing an amazing talent at both the trombone and musical theatre. He fought a brief, but ultimately unsuccessful, battle against cancer at the beginning of this year and passed away in June in Dubai where he had lived for over 30 years.

Matt Garner

Winder 1978-1983